In the early 1940's, Minnie and William Freeman had 311 Vanderbilt Rd designed by famed Asheville architect Henry Gaines of Six Associates. Based on European Bauhaus architectural designs, this beautiful "International" style home has since been owned by only one other family and its original integrity remains intact. This five/six bedroom home sits on a magnificent, level 1.92 acre lot that abuts the Biltmore Estate. It has large rooms and the potential to be a showcase of modern style.
